PROJECT MANAGEMENT FELLOW SPOTLIGHT

EDUCATION PIONEERS

Grow your team's leadership and capacity this summer.

Education Pioneers builds the pipeline of leaders outside the classroom who enable teachers and students to be successful inside the classroom,

This year, we are offering the Summer Fellowship in Texas (Dallas and Houston), Chicago, Washington, D.C., and the Bay Area. Our 10-week Summer Fellowship gives you access to high-potential leaders who provide dedicated support in strategy, operations, project management, or data analytics for a defined project over the summer.

ADD CAPACITY IN PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Solid program management talent is the key to success. Many of our Pioneers managed complex projects, while working across teams to help move the needle for students.

Program and Project Managers can support your organization by:

- Manage stakeholder relationships to execute project plans.
- Design learning and development programming
- Coordinate adoption of new strategic initiatives

Christie Imholt
2015 EP Alum
Denver Public Schools

As an EP Fellow, Christie served as a program manager for Teacher Leadership & Career Pathways at DPS, where she helped schools strengthen their ability to support and grow their teachers.

Christie developed a strong planning process for schools to customize DPS' Teacher Leadership and Collaboration model. she continued in this role leading the work of 115 schools as they developed systems and structures to implement TLC in 2016-17.

Christie now serves as the Executive Director of District Policy & Strategy with Aurora Public Schools.

Nicole Young
2013 EP Alum
Algiers Charter Schools

As an EP Fellow in New Orleans, Nicole was placed with Algiers Charter Schools Association. There, she worked with the human capital team to craft a teacher development plan and design leadership pathways to better retain staff and faculty.

Nicole used her experience with qualitative research and human capital management to first interview ACSA's top performing teachers and then use that to design a career pathway plan to match the diverse needs of the association's teaching staff.

Currently, Nicole serves as Executive Director for Bard Early College in New Orleans.
